ANGRY SETTLERS.

FIGHT FOR THE POSSESSION OF A QUARTER SECTION.

Two Men Shot and Killed and a Third
Lynched by a Mob of Homesteaders Near Alva.

As a result of an attempt to drive
homestead men from their claims two men were shot and killed near Alva yesterday,
and one lynched by a mob of angry settlers.

Ever since the opening of the strip a band of about twenty Bohemians has been moving about the country, driving settlers off their claims and threatening to murder them if they returned. Yesterday they ordered a cowboy, whose name is not known, to vacate his claim. They were accompanied by John Allen and his son (surveyors), who told the cowboy that the survey of the adjoining claim, which had been seized by one of the Bohemians, overlapped the cowboy's claim. The latter refused to vacate and the younger Allen attacked him with a hatchet, cutting two ugly gashes in his head. The cowboy then drew a revolver and shot and killed both the Allens.

News of the trouble reached Alva late last night and an officer went to the scene. He found the cowboy holding the Bohemians at bay and arrested him and took him to Hennessey. The Bohemians then, leaving two of their number on the claim, took their departure. News of the affair spread quickly among the neighboring settlers, and a small mob gathered early to lynch the two desperadoes. One of the Bohemians made his escape, but the infuriated settlers captured the other and hanged him to a tree.

THE FINEST CLOTHING IN THE TERRITORY.

IMPOSING AND IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES

Attending the Supreme Court Session at Chief Justice Dale and Associate Justice Scott, Judge Green
Judge H. H. Hennessey.

Hon. Frank Dale is now chief justice of Oklahoma territory, while Hon. Henry W. Scott is junior associate justice of the supreme court.

With imposing and impressive ceremonies these two eminent jurists were inducted into their high offices by Judge Green and Associate Justice Burford last evening at 7 o'clock in the district court room.

The occasion, which was one of great solemnity, was witnessed by a goodly number of people, including the representative members of the local bar. Among the ladies present were Mrs. Judge Green, Mrs. Gardner and Miss Green.

At the hour stated Justice Green mounted the bench with Judge Burford at his right and ordered the bailiff to open the supreme court of Oklahoma territory. This done he beckoned to Justice Scott, who advanced and tendered his commission as associate justice of the supreme court of the territory. After the perusal of the commission, Justice Scott took the oath of office administered by Justice Burford, after which he took his seat to the left of the chief justice. Justice Dale was next sworn in by the retiring justice, Green, who delivered the impressive words of the oath in a clear, distinct tone and in a solemn manner. Gracefully he retired from the judicial throne and tendered his seat to Chief Justice Dale with the words: "I now have the pleasure of welcoming you to the chair of the chief justice of Oklahoma territory."

Justice Dale accepted in a neat expression of thanks and added that upon the meeting of the court October 7 suitable resolutions of respect would be spread upon the court records.

The induction into office of the new officials was formal and solemn, and a hushed stillness pervaded the room as the iron-clad oaths were delivered. All the justices were robed in black and presented appearances at once dignified and commanding. Justice Green's abdication of the judicial chair was happy and graceful. Immediately upon his retirement Attorney Harper S. Cunningham, chairman of the territorial bar, arose and in behalf of the bar moved that Judge Green be admitted to practice at the bar of Oklahoma territory and that his name be placed at the head of the roll of attorneys. The outgoing justice was at once sworn in by Justice Dale.

On Monday evening there will be a bar meeting in the court room to take suitable action on the retirement of Judge Green, who intends to remain in Guthrie with his family and practice law. Judge Green is a brilliant man, an able jurist, and during his residence here has made hosts of friends by his uniform courtesy and pleasant disposition.

Chief Justice Dale is one of the best lawyers in the southwest and he stands at the head of the Oklahoma bar. He was one of the founders of the LEADER and his appointment gives universal satisfaction. Associate Justice Scott is 25 years of age and is perhaps the youngest supreme judge in the United States. His career has been a shining success. At 22 he was register of the Larned, Kan., land office, and he has written several legal works of standard authority. He came to Oklahoma two years ago and had worked up a splendid practice. He was a candidate with almost a clear field for United States attorney for Oklahoma, but owing to the delay in making the change in this office, the department of justice decided to appoint him to the position he now holds. His appointment, like that of Justice Dale, gives great satisfaction. Chief Justice Dale immediately entered upon the discharge of the duties of his high office and announced a redistricting of the territory for judicial purposes, embracing the new counties of the strip.

The districts are as follows: First district, Chief Justice Frank Dale, presiding—Logan, Payne, P. Q. and K. counties.

Second district, Judge John H. Burford, presiding—Canadian, Kingfisher, Beaver, C. D. E. F. G. H. O. and L. counties.

Third district, Judge Henry W. Scott, presiding—Oklahoma, Cleveland, Pottawatomie, Lincoln, M. and N. counties.

The supreme court will meet in regular session at 10 a. m., October 7th. Edgar Jones will assume the duties of clerk of the court and Mr. Filson steps down and out.

Townsite Board No. 10.

Colonel H. F. Mitchell, chairman of townsite board No. 10, located at Alva ("M") county, is at the Royal. The Colonel was appointed from Arkansas, but says this country beats his native state all hollow. He will permanently locate in Oklahoma. He was an attentive witness at the supreme court ceremonies and one of the first to congratulate the new chief justice and associate. In company with a LEADER man he was driven over the city, and manifested surprise at our energy and prosperity. He says that Alva will lay it over us though if she is just given a little more time. They have great expectations there on the west side, and hope to build the metropolis of the territory. The land office is receiving filings at the rate of 50 per day and there are over 1,500 in line.

The Town of Blackwell.
Blackwell, the new town of the middle Chikaskia river country, takes its name from the Indian citizen who staked his allotment at that point. One of the chief advantages it has is its ample supply of pure and wholesome water. The town is about half way between the Santa Fe and Rock Island railroads and has daily communication with both by stage lines.
